

Attachment to Notice Regarding Fee Deficiency

Due to the limitations of our automated systems, the attached Notice requires an incorrect amount due by applicant. The amount shown on the Notice does not include an overpayment that could not be applied to the fees assessed in the application.

Total amount due as shown on Notice: $ 850

Minus total unapplied amount: $ 20

Total amount due from applicant: $ 830

Any fees listed on the Notice, other than what is listed above, are correct and are due in the specified amounts.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this reply to your recent correspondence dated 12/29/04 stating my reply received by you on 12/14/04 was incomplete. I do not understand how this is possible as I enclosed all of the fees requested with a credit card payment form. Furthermore, I fail to see how you can request fees for 58 total claims over 20 when the total number of claims in my application is 64, with 3 independent claims. That being said, at this point I do not want to risk abandonment so enclosed once again you will find my attempt to pay you your inaccurate fees with a credit card payment form for the amount requested on your attachment to notice regarding fee deficiency which states in handwriting “$830”.

I hope this payment will move the process of publication of my application forward.

Sincerely,

Eric J. Gandras, M.D.
